

What is PBIS?

PBIS is a school-wide commitment to teaching students expected behavior, acknowledging them when they get it right, and supporting them when they don't.

Major Components

- Common approach to discipline
- Positively stated expectations for all students & staff
- Procedures for teaching expected behavior to students
- Continuum for encouraging demonstration & maintenance of expected behaviors
- Continuum for discouraging rule-violating behavior
- Monitoring and evaluation system to determine effectiveness on a regular and frequent basis
- Provide intervention and progress monitoring for students with at-risk behaviors
